Background:-

Jan Kalyan Samajik Sansthan (JKSS) is registered under MP Society Registration act 1973 on April 21, 1999. Organization is working for the cause of social development and welfare of common people. This was created by a group of college students on 02 October 1998. That time it was known Youth Chetana Club and after the registration got new name called- Jan Kalyan Samajik Sansthan.

JKSS strongly believes in people's power and their participation in action for sustainable development. They may play greater role as change agent and facilitator in promotion of alternate people's mechanism at grass root level.

Keeping in mind the above thought, JKSS initially started working on youth development and further incorporated other development issues i.e. plantation, Sanitation, elementary education, health, skill and leadership development program for youth and women's, NRLM, HIV/AIDS, TB/ RNTCP, Gram Sabha Empowerment, Agriculture and against social evils etc.

The JKSS is currently working in Rajnandgaon, Durg, Raipur and Kawardha districts of Chhattisgarh state. The organization is having strong coordination with different government departments/ agencies, National and International development partners, CSOs, Universities, Academia and professionals for support in implementation of various community based interventions.

The management committee and staff members of the organization are committed to the cause of empowering the marginalized people. Involvement of women from minority community and weaker section of society is also ensured the governing body and staff.
